Job Announcements/Postings

All of our job information is accessible on our website at hr.nv.gov. We have a dedicated microsite to the employment process at nvjobs.nv.gov where you can find information on classified, unclassified and non-classified positions.

Positions may be posted on other sites that may be out of our control (Indeed, Monster, etc) and we are not responsible for their postings should they post a position that we have already closed. We do post on the following websites: Craiglist, JobSpider, Gigajob, us.jobs.

Ultimately, the best practice is if you see a position on one of these sites, apply directly through https://nvapps.state nv.us/NEATS/Recruiting/ViewJobsHome.aep site.

Note: New positions are added just about every day so check back often.
Start Here

Searching Job Announcements
You can look at jobs throughout the state or you can filter by location and/or job category. You can view the position title, salary, location and how much time is left before the position closes.

If you do not already work for the State, you will only be eligible to apply to “Open Competitive” (Open to all that qualify) recruitments which are open for anyone to apply to.
Start Here

Submitting an Application

If you see a position you are interested in, click on the job title and it will bring up the announcement. Read the announcement completely, paying attention to the minimum qualifications for the position as well as any special requirements or prescreening questions. Most positions have a combination of education and experience.

Also pay attention to when the position closes (positions close at 5:00pm on the closing date) as applications are not accepted after that date.

In order to apply for a position you must register and build your profile as completely as possible in our system. We do not accept resumes. Please take the time to answer the questions as thoroughly as possible. Failure to provide enough information could result in your application being rejected.

Note: Our recruiters (Division of Human Resource Management) do not hire. They initially qualify your application and then, if qualified, forward a list of qualified applicants to the hiring department for their decision on whom they wish to interview.

NVAPPS Profile - Employment History Tab

Employment History - This is the section that will require most of your attention. Start with your current employer and fill out this section completely. The important part here is to assign a percentage of the duties/responsibilities you performed to equal 100%. This is important as the person who reviews your application can give you credit for a task performed even if you performed it less than 100% of the time. You can also include any volunteer work you may have performed. This will be the most time-consuming but will have the most impact.

Example: You are applying for an Accounting Assistant I position that requires graduation from high school and (1) one year of clerical experience, 6 months of which included Accounts Payable and/or Accounts Receivable responsibility. You have been employed with that organization for 6 years. We are going to prorate that time and give you 7.2 months of experience credit.
