10
Items to Consider When Developing NVAPPS Profile:

- Do not use acronyms – Acronyms may be different for each company/organization.

- Detailed yet concise job tasks – Vague job tasks and tasks that are in paragraph form (i.e. 100%) do not allow recruiters to verify that you meet the position requirements.

- Percentages – Each task should have its own percentage of time. This allows recruiters to prorate the eligible tasks that are associated to the position applicants are applying for.

- “Other Duties as Assigned” – You know those duties, the recruiters don’t know the duties. This results in recruiters not able to give you credit for this.

- Volunteer work is okay to list as a position. You gained experience as a volunteer; it is alright to show it in your employment history.

- Attaching college transcripts is preferred for all positions, and required on some positions.

- Recruiters do not assume you have the experience; they need to see it in your employment history.

- Resumes are not accepted in lieu of the application. You can attach it to your profile however recruiters will not read it.

- If you have held two different positions for the same company, list the two positions separately. For example, you were an Administrative Assistant from 2001 - 2002, then you transferred to a different position as a Purchasing Technician from 2002 - 2010. You would have the two different positions listed separately with the company listed twice in your employment history.

- Check and double check your spelling and grammar; your application is your first impression.

- If there is additional position experience or additional skills required on the recruitment you want to apply for, you will need to answer the question with details. Those details will also need to be seen in your employment history. If there is an extra box to write in your answer, use to describe the type of experience and where you gained the experience. That experience should also be in your employment history.

700-Hour Program Process

  • Contact must be made with the persons on the list and essential functions made available to them.

  • May choose to offer the successful 700-Hour appointee a more permanent position at the end of the 700-Hour appointment.
NRS 284.327 states, “Temporary limited appointment of persons with disabilities.

1. To assist persons with disabilities certified by the Rehabilitation Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation, appointing authorities are encouraged and authorized to make temporary limited appointments of certified persons with disabilities for a period not to exceed 700 hours notwithstanding that the positions so filled are continuing positions. A person with a disability who is certified by the Rehabilitation Division must be placed on the appropriate list for which the person is eligible. Each such person must possess the training and experience necessary for the position for which the person is certified. The Rehabilitation Division must be notified of an appointing authority’s request for a list of eligibility on which the names of one or more certified persons with disabilities appear. A temporary limited appointment of a certified person with a disability pursuant to this section constitutes the person’s examination as required by NRS 284.215.

2. The Commission shall adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of subsection 1.

3. This section does not deter or prevent appointing authorities from employing:

   (a) A person with a disability if the person is available and eligible for permanent employment.

   (b) A person with a disability who is employed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 1 in permanent employment if the person qualifies for permanent employment before the termination of the person’s temporary limited appointment.

4. If a person appointed pursuant to this section is subsequently appointed to a permanent position during or after the 700-hour period, the 700 hours or portion thereof counts toward the employee’s probationary period.”
NAC 284.364 Lists of persons with disabilities who are eligible for temporary limited appointments. (NRS 284.065, 284.155, 284.250, 284.327)

1. Pursuant to NRS 284.327, the Rehabilitation Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation may provide to the Division of Human Resource Management the names of persons with disabilities certified by the Rehabilitation Division who are eligible for temporary limited appointments of 700 hours’ duration. Upon receipt from the Rehabilitation Division of the job applications and job recommendations, the Division of Human Resource Management will evaluate the information against the job requirements and minimum qualifications of the recommended classes. Through noncompetitive means, the names of qualified persons will be placed in a 700-hour category on the eligible list and certified to the requesting agency for consideration.

2. A current probationary or permanent state employee who occupies a permanent full-time position is not eligible for the provisions of this section unless his or her disability jeopardizes his or her continued employment in his or her present position and placement on the list does not merely circumvent the provisions of this chapter governing promotion or transfer.
