Items to Consider When Developing NVAPPS Profile:

- Do not use acronyms – Acronyms may be different for each company/organization.
- Detailed yet concise job tasks – Vague job tasks and tasks that are in paragraph form (i.e. 100%) do not allow recruiters to verify that you meet the position requirements.
- Percentages – Each task should have its own percentage of time. This allows recruiters to prorate the eligible tasks that are associated to the position applicants are applying for.
- “Other Duties as Assigned” – You know those duties, the recruiters don’t know the duties. This results in recruiters not able to give you credit for this.
- Volunteer work is okay to list as a position. You gained experience as a volunteer; it is alright to show it in your employment history.
- Attaching college transcripts is preferred for all positions, and required on some positions.
- Recruiters do not assume you have the experience; they need to see it in your employment history.
- Resumes are not accepted in lieu of the application. You can attach it to your profile however recruiters will not read it.
- If you have held two different positions for the same company, list the two positions separately. For example, you were an Administrative Assistant from 2001 -2002, then you transferred to a different position as a Purchasing Technician from 2002- 2010. You would have the two different positions listed separately with the company listed twice in your employment history.
- Check and double check your spelling and grammar; your application is your first impression.
- If there is additional position experience or additional skills required on the recruitment you want to apply for, you will need to answer the question with details. Those details will also need to be seen in your employment history. If there is an extra box to write in your answer, use to describe the type of experience and where you gained the experience. That experience should also be in your employment history.

4. Click the “Apply” button at the bottom of the job announcement

Helpful links - “Instructions” and “Frequently Asked Questions” located in top right corner of website

The screenshot shows the NVAPPS website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, Jobs, Messages, and My Profile. A prominent message box says "Remember to Check your Messages after you sign-on!". Below this, there is a "Jobs Home Page" section with a search bar and filters. A callout points to the "Sign On" button with the text "Remember to Sign-on to Apply!". On the right side, there are search filters for Location, Occupational Group, and Specialization, with a callout pointing to them saying "Refine Your Search".

NVAPPS Useful Tips and Definitions:

- Applicant Profile & Job Duties – When completing the applicant profile employment history and job duties, detailed information is best and list each job function on a separate line with a percentage of time for each task is best. Having a paragraph with all job functions in one box may not fully describe your qualifications.
- Application Status – this is the actual status of your application you have submitted. Pending Verification = application has not been reviewed by recruiter. Verified = application meets minimum qualifications. Eligible = applicant has passed exam and information has been forwarded to agency.
- Action – This is column is on the job tab and is the action you wish to take on your application, not the status of the application; it will state “withdraw”. If you click the “withdraw” link, you are telling the recruiter you are not interested in pursuing the opportunity of the position you had applied for.
- Exam Scheduling – If a position requires a written examination, an e-mail and in-system message (when you are logged-in there is a message area on your home tab) will be sent to you.
- Exam Scores – Your scores can be found by signing –in to your profile, click the job tab then click the position you want to see the exam score. The window will refresh and click the exam tab. The position’s exam version and pass point will show and your exam score can be seen on the far right side of window.

NRS 284.327 states, “Temporary limited appointment of persons with disabilities.

1. To assist persons with disabilities certified by the Rehabilitation Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation, appointing authorities are encouraged and authorized to make temporary limited appointments of certified persons with disabilities for a period not to exceed 700 hours notwithstanding that the positions so filled are continuing positions. A person with a disability who is certified by the Rehabilitation Division must be placed on the appropriate list for which the person is eligible. Each such person must possess the training and experience necessary for the position for which the person is certified. The Rehabilitation Division must be notified of an appointing authority’s request for a list of eligibility on which the names of one or more certified persons with disabilities appear. A temporary limited appointment of a certified person with a disability pursuant to this section constitutes the person’s examination as required by NRS 284.215.
2. The Commission shall adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of subsection 1.
3. This section does not deter or prevent appointing authorities from employing:
 - (a) A person with a disability if the person is available and eligible for permanent employment.
 - (b) A person with a disability who is employed pursuant to the provisions of subsection 1 in permanent employment if the person qualifies for permanent employment before the termination of the person’s temporary limited appointment.
4. If a person appointed pursuant to this section is subsequently appointed to a permanent position during or after the 700-hour period, the 700 hours or portion thereof counts toward the employee’s probationary period.”

NAC 284.364 Lists of persons with disabilities who are eligible for temporary limited appointments. (NRS 284.065, 284.155, 284.250, 284.327)

1. Pursuant to NRS 284.327, the Rehabilitation Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation may provide to the Division of Human Resource Management the names of persons with disabilities certified by the Rehabilitation Division who are eligible for temporary limited appointments of 700 hours' duration. Upon receipt from the Rehabilitation Division of the job applications and job recommendations, the Division of Human Resource Management will evaluate the information against the job requirements and minimum qualifications of the recommended classes. Through noncompetitive means, the names of qualified persons will be placed in a 700-hour category on the eligible list and certified to the requesting agency for consideration.
2. A current probationary or permanent state employee who occupies a permanent full-time position is not eligible for the provisions of this section unless his or her disability jeopardizes his or her continued employment in his or her present position and placement on the list does not merely circumvent the provisions of this chapter governing promotion or transfer.
